"On the basis of my experience in India and different Foreign Countries, I congratulate the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor for having inculcated in the University, with reference to the Department of English as I know it for a decade now, a seriousness with regard to academic and research activities. I congratulate the Department also for their hardwork and dedication. I received all these synopsis from Head of Department long time back and had enough time to give my comments and suggestion which have been largely incorporated in these synopsis before presenting them in the BORS. This saved the precious time of the BORS members as well as of the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor."
